AUBURNDALE CHAMBER MAINSTREET AWARDS PRIZE PACK FOR SEAFOOD FESTIVAL

Auburndale, Fla. (March 3, 2003) – When Benny Willis Jr. of Polk City, Fla. and his wife went to eat seafood; he didn't know he would be making future date plans with his wife. His name was drawn for the deep sea fishing package for two, at the Auburndale Chamber/Mainstreet's second annual seafood festival on Feb. 28. "My wife said I better take her and not one of my fishing buddies," he said chuckling.

Dave Dershimer Nationwide Insurance Agency donated the $200 gift prize, which included a deep-sea fishing trip for two from Queen Fleet in Clearwater Beach, Fla., a $50 gift certificate to Crabby Bills Restaurant, and $50 spending money.

About four hundred guests attended the Auburndale Seafood Festival. They enjoyed a vast array of fresh seafood including Alaskan king crab, fried grouper, raw oysters, jumbo shrimp, crab legs and sides. They were all served by employee volunteers from over 15 festival sponsors. The festival also featured a two-day boat show at the Auburndale City Beach.
